

MY PERFECT VALENTINE

Well, on Valentine's Day, I HAD SPENDED it with my family, because in the morning my mom and I took my dogs for a walk in the park for a long time, the bad thing about them is that they get very desperate and I don't like that, Upon returning, I HAD BEEN PREPARING A RICH BREAKFAST FOR MY MOTHER THAT HE LOVED SO MUCH, and I bought her a beautiful BOUQUET OF FLOWERS WITH A TEDDY BEAR, she had given me some delicious CHOCOLATES, we had our breakfast, talking and planning WHAT we would do in the late, because WE HAD DECIDED to go out to have some very tasty ice creams, since at night my father and my brother would arrive to go have dinner.

The afternoon arrived and WE HAD BEEN getting ready to go for the ice creams, I put on a very pretty dress THAT my brother had given me for Christmas, and my mother an outfit that MY DAD had given her, we went out and everything was full, but we did arrive to eat our delicious ice cream I asked for vanilla with chocolate and my mother ordered chocolate flavor alone. We returned home and were waiting for my mother and my brother, WHO HAVE BEEN WORKING, we went from one restaurant to another because everything was full , we ate a delicious grilled chicken, that was my PERFECT VALENTINE.
